Tesla Gigafactory on track to get Nevada approval for increased emissions

(rgj.com) Tesla's Gigafactory 1 just east of Reno-Sparks is set to gain approval from the state for a change in classification that will allow it to increase the amount of emissions it releases annually. The Nevada Division of Environmental Protection concluded that Tesla's application satisfies the requirements set by federal and state law. The agency is now seeking public comment through Aug. 17 before it issues a new permit for the Gigafactory for its new class designation. (More)

Breaking News: Newsweek names Bass Pro Shops America's Best Outdoor Retailer

(about.basspro.com) Bass Pro Shops along with their affiliated brand, Cabela's, have once again received a premier spot on Newsweek's list of "America's Best Retailers 2022" and is honored to be recognized as the leader of the Camping & Outdoor Gear Industry. Following its recognition from Newsweek in 2021 as one of the "Best Trending Online Shops," this award focuses on the overall in-store traditional retail experience. In 2020, the retailer also was recognized by Newsweek for its "Best-in-State Customer Service" in 16 of 20 states surveyed. (More)
