Risk Factors

An investment in the interests involves substantial risks including, without limitation:

- There are various risks associated with owning, financing, operating, and leasing commercial properties in Nevada.
- The interests do not represent a diversified investment.
- Beneficial Owners must completely rely on the Master Tenant to pay the rent and operate, manage, lease, and maintain the property.
- If the Tenant does not renew or extend the lease, or terminates or defaults on the lease, the operating results of the property could be adversely affected by the loss of revenue and Beneficial Owners could lose the benefits of Section 1031.
- The Beneficial Owners have no voting rights with respect to the management or operations of the Trust or in connection with the sale of the property.
- There are various conflicts of interest among the Trust, the Master Tenant, the Sponsor, the Signatory Trustee, and their Affiliates.
- The interests are illiquid.
- There are tax risks associated with an investment in the interests.
